S. B. DUDLEY, M. D.
CALDWELL, IDAHO

March 28,1944

Director Vital Statistics State of Idaho,
Boise,
Ida.

Dear Madame:

On examination of the certified birth certificate of Donald Steele born at Weiser 1-7-1915 now living at Nampa,Idaho, I notice the following;

1. My signature is at the bottom
2. The script of the report written from dictation is,most likely that of my secretary at that time-Irene Lunger.
3. Theparents were very close friends ,members of the same church society.The Donald Steele who brought this report is a nearly perfect image of his father T.J.Steele.
4. I remember the birth of this person,a male not a female child and am certain it was a clerical error as reported. The notation "number in order of birth""5th" is also a clerical error,it referring to the order of birth in the family,for it was the birth of a single male child-not a part of multiple birth.
5. The maiden surname of mother is also erroneously absent the full name being Ida May Elliott.

Very truly yours,

S. B. Dudley

Subscribed and sworn to before me, the undersigned, a Notary Public for Idaho, this 28th day of March, 1944.
